SUPPLEMENT TO PROXY STATEMENT FOR ANNUAL AND SPECIAL MEETING OF SHAREOWNERS

to be held on Tuesday, May 4, 2021

The date of this Supplement is April 22, 2021.

On March 25, 2021, Primo Water Corporation (the “Company”) filed a definitive Proxy Statement relating to the Company’s 2021 Annual and Special Meeting of Shareowners. The Annual and Special Meeting will be held virtually and is scheduled for Tuesday, May 4, 2021 at 8:00 a.m. (local time in Tampa). As previously disclosed, March 15, 2021 is the record date to determine shareowners who are entitled to receive notice of the meeting. This Supplement amends and supplements the Proxy Statement to change information regarding Proposal 5 in the Proxy Statement, the continuance of the Company under the Business Corporations Act (Ontario) from the Canada Business Corporations Act (the “Continuance Proposal”). All capitalized terms not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings given to them in the Proxy Statement.

The Company’s existing advance notice by-law sets out the advance notice requirements for director nominations. Among other things, the existing by-law fixes a deadline by which shareowners must notify the Company of their intention to nominate directors and set out the information that shareowners must provide in the notice for it to be valid.

As originally disclosed in the Proxy Statement, the advance notice requirements in the Proposed By-Laws would be substantially the same as the existing requirements except for the removal of the requirement that a nominating shareowner’s notice include a duly completed personal information form in respect of the nominee in the form prescribed by the principal stock exchange on which the Company’s securities are then listed for trading.

After discussing the Continuance Proposal, and the proposed constating documents that will apply to the Company following the Continuance, with shareowners and institutional shareowner advisors, the Company has decided to make certain additional changes to the Proposed By-Laws, including:

1. Removal of the maximum notice period.

The Proposed By-laws, as disclosed in the Proxy Statement, stated that in the case of an annual meeting of the shareowners, notice must be given not less than 30 nor more than 60 days prior to the date of the annual meeting. The updated Proposed By-laws would remove the maximum 60 day notice period.

2. Providing that the adjournment or postponement of a meeting shall commence a new notice time period.

The Proposed By-laws, as disclosed in the Proxy Statement, stated that the adjournment or postponement of a meeting of shareowners, or the announcement thereof, would not commence a new time period for providing notice to shareowners. The updated Proposed By-laws would reverse this language, such that the adjournment or postponement of a meeting of shareowners or the announcement thereof would commence a new time period for notice to shareowners.

3. Removal of the Company’s blanket discretion to require a proposed nominee to furnish additional information.

The Proposed By-laws, as disclosed in the Proxy Statement, stated that the Company could require any proposed nominee to furnish such other information as the Company may reasonably require to determine the eligibility of such proposed nominee to serve as an independent director of the Company or that could be material to a reasonable shareowner’s understanding of the independence, or lack thereof, of such proposed nominee. The updated Proposed By-laws would remove the Company’s blanket discretion to require such additional information.

The Proposed By-Laws, reflecting these updates, are included as Exhibit A to this Supplement.

The Company believes these changes, and those previously disclosed in the Proxy Statement, are favorable to shareowners, less restrictive than the Company's existing advance notice by-law and consistent with the guidance of the Toronto Stock Exchange and best corporate governance practices.

The Board recommends that the shareowners vote FOR the Continuance Resolution, as proposed with the changes described above. Unless contrary instructions are indicated on the Form of Proxy or the voting instructions form, the persons designated in the previously provided Form of Proxy or voting instruction form intend to vote "FOR" the Continuance Resolution.

If you have already returned your proxy or provided voting instructions, you do not need to take any action unless you wish to change your vote. Proxies already returned by shareowners will remain valid and will be voted at the Annual and Special Meeting unless revoked. If you have not yet returned your proxy card or submitted your voting instructions, please complete the card or submit instructions, taking note of the changes described above. If you wish to change your vote, you can revoke your proxy at any time before the meeting by delivering to our Secretary a written notice of revocation or a duly executed proxy bearing a later date, by voting via the Internet at a later date or by attending the online meeting and voting at the online meeting. You may send a written notice to our Secretary to the following address: 4221 W. Boy Scout Blvd., Suite 400, Tampa, Florida 33607. This revocation must be received by our Secretary before the meeting (or before the date of the reconvened meeting if it is adjourned), or in any other way permitted by law. If you revoke your proxy and do not replace it with another form of proxy that is properly deposited, you may still vote shares registered in your name online during the meeting.

You may also vote over the phone by calling toll free 1-800-690-6903 or over the Internet by accessing www.proxyvote.com and following the proxy login and voting procedures described for the meeting. Additional information regarding how to vote your shares is available in the Proxy Statement. The Notice and Proxy Statement are available at www.primowatercorp.com. This supplement is being made available online at the same location on or about April 22, 2021.

The directors may, from time to time, fix by resolution the quorum for meetings of directors, but until otherwise fixed, a majority of the directors in office from time to time shall constitute a quorum. Any meeting of directors at which a quorum is present shall be competent to exercise all or any of the authorities, powers and discretions by or under the by-laws of the Corporation for the time being vested in or exercisable by the directors generally.

Subject to the Act and to the articles of the Corporation, the directors may appoint one or more directors, who shall hold office for a term expiring not later than the close of the next annual meeting of shareowners, but the total number of directors so appointed may not exceed one-third of the number of directors elected at the previous annual meeting of shareowners.

In the absence of a quorum of the board, or if the vacancy has arisen from a failure of the shareowners to elect the number or minimum number of directors, the board may call a special meeting of shareowners to fill the vacancy. If the board fails to call such meeting or if there are no such directors then in office, any shareowner may call the meeting. Where there is a vacancy in the board, the remaining directors may exercise all the authorities, powers and discretions of the board so long as a quorum remains in office.

SECTION 4.06 MEETINGS BY TELEPHONE ELECTRONIC OR OTHER COMMUNICATION FACILITY. A director may, to the extent and in the manner permitted by law, participate in a meeting of directors or of a committee of directors by means of a telephonic, electronic or other communication facility that permits all participants to communicate adequately with each other during the meeting, but only if all the directors of the Corporation have consented to that form of participation. A director participating in such a meeting by such means is deemed for the purposes of the Act to be present at that meeting. Any such consent shall be effective whether given before or after the meeting to which it relates and may be given with respect to all meetings of the board and of committees of the board held while a director holds office.

A director may waive notice of or otherwise consent to a meeting of the board. Such a waiver of notice may be sent in any manner, including as an electronic document and at any time before, during or after a meeting of the board. No action taken at any meeting of the board shall be invalidated by the accidental failure to give notice or sufficient notice thereof to any director.

SECTION 10.08 QUORUM. Except as otherwise provided by law or by the articles, a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of shareowners shall be not less than two persons present in person, each being a shareowner entitled to vote thereat or a duly appointed proxy for an absent shareowner so entitled, and holding or representing the holder or holders of shares carrying not less than a majority of the voting power of all issued and outstanding shares of the Corporation entitled to vote on a particular matter to be acted on at the meeting, except that, when specified business is to be voted on by one or more classes or series of shares voting as a class, unless otherwise provided by law, regulatory authority or by the articles, the holders of not less than a majority of the voting power of the shares of such classes or series shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of such matter. If a quorum is present at the opening of the meeting of shareowners, the shareowners present may proceed with the business of the meeting, notwithstanding that a quorum is not present throughout the meeting.

SECTION 10.11 TIME FOR DEPOSIT OF PROXIES. The board may specify in a notice calling a meeting of shareowners a time, preceding the time of such meeting by not more than forty-eight (48) hours exclusive of non-business days, before which time proxies to be used at such meeting must be deposited. A proxy shall be acted upon only if, prior to the time so specified, it shall have been deposited with the Corporation or an agent thereof specified in such notice or, if no such time is specified in such notice, unless it has been received by the secretary of the Corporation or by the chairperson of the meeting or any adjournment thereof prior to the time of voting.

SECTION 10.14 SHOW OF HANDS. Subject to the provisions of the Act, any question at a meeting of shareowners shall be decided by a show of hands unless a ballot thereon is required or demanded as hereinafter provided. Upon a show of hands every person who is present and entitled to vote shall have one vote. Whenever a vote by show of hands shall have been taken upon a question, unless a ballot thereon is so required or demanded, a declaration by the chairperson of the meeting that the vote upon the question has been carried or carried by a particular majority or not carried and an entry to that effect in the minutes of the meeting shall be prima facie evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against any resolution or other proceeding in respect of the said question, and the result of the vote so taken shall be the decision of the shareowners upon the said question.

A ballot so required or demanded shall be taken in such manner as the chairperson shall direct. A requirement or demand for a ballot may be withdrawn at any time prior to the taking of the ballot. If a ballot is taken, each person present shall be entitled, in respect of the shares which he is entitled to votes at the meeting upon the question, to that number of votes provided by the Act or the articles, and the result of the ballot so taken shall be the decision of the shareowners upon the said question.

If a meeting of shareowners is adjourned by one or more adjournments for an aggregate of thirty (30) days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as for required by the Act.
