COTT CORPORATION

Dividend Reinvestment Plan

4,000,000 Common Shares

We are offering up to a maximum of 4,000,000 common shares (the “Common Shares”), no par value, pursuant to our Dividend Reinvestment Plan (the “Plan”). You should read this prospectus carefully before you invest and retain it for future reference. The Plan provides electing shareowners (“Participants”) with a convenient and economical means of purchasing Common Shares by reinvesting the cash dividends paid on our Common Shares. Your participation in the Plan is entirely voluntary, and you may terminate your participation at any time.

We have appointed Computershare Trust Company of Canada (the “Plan Agent”) to serve as the agent under the Plan. Any eligible registered shareowner of Cott Corporation may become a Participant in the Plan at any time by completing an Enrollment Form (as defined below) online or by downloading and completing and signing a Reinvestment Enrollment—Participation Declaration Form (the “Enrollment Form”) at www.investorcentre.com and returning it to the Plan Agent.

A shareowner of Cott Corporation who is a beneficial owner and not an owner of record of Common Shares (e.g., whose shares are held through an intermediary such as a financial institution, broker or other nominee) must make arrangements with that intermediary to enroll as a Participant in the Plan. The administrative practices of such intermediaries may vary and, accordingly, the various dates by which actions must be taken and documentary requirements set out in the Plan may not be the same as those required by intermediaries.

Our Common Shares are traded on the New York Stock Exchange (the “NYSE”) under the symbol “COT” and on the Toronto Stock Exchange (the “TSX”) under the symbol “BCB.” On May 15, 2015, the last reported sale price of our Common Shares on the NYSE and the TSX was U.S.$9.49 and Cdn$11.43, respectively.

Investing in our securities involves risks. You should carefully consider the information referred to under the heading “Risk Factors” beginning on page 4. Neither we nor the Plan Agent can provide any assurance of a profit or protection against loss on any shares purchased under the Plan.

Neither the Securities and Exchange Commission nor any state securities commission has approved or disapproved of these securities or determined if this prospectus is truthful or complete. Any representation to the contrary is a criminal offense.

DESCRIPTION OF THE PLAN

The provisions of the Plan are set forth below in question and answer format.

Purpose

What is the Dividend Reinvestment Plan?

The Plan provides a means for eligible holders of Common Shares to acquire additional Common Shares by the reinvestment of their dividends paid on all of their Common Shares. Computershare Trust Company of Canada acts as the agent for the Participants.

Advantages

What are the advantages of the Plan?

- Common Shares are purchased quarterly with reinvested dividends. Full investment of dividends is possible because the Plan permits fractions of shares, as well as whole shares, to be purchased and held for Participants. In addition, dividends on such fractional shares, as well as on whole shares, will be reinvested.
- All administrative costs are borne by us and there is no brokerage commission for the Common Shares acquired under the Plan.
- Regular quarterly statements of account are provided for Participants' record-keeping.
- A Participant may withdraw and/or sell any number of whole Common Shares held in the Plan (as used in this section, "Plan Shares") at any time without terminating participation in the Plan by giving written notice to the Plan Agent.

Participation

Who is eligible to participate?

Registered shareowners who reside in Canada or the United States and hold at least one whole Common Share are eligible to participate in the Plan. Non-registered beneficial shareowners who reside in Canada or the United States may also participate but should contact their intermediary to determine procedures for participation in the Plan. Shareowners resident outside Canada or the United States may participate unless participation is not allowed in that jurisdiction.

How do I enroll in the Plan?

To join the Plan a registered shareowner must complete, sign and return an Enrollment Form to the Plan Agent. Non-registered shareowners should contact the intermediary through which they hold their Common Shares to participate in the Plan. If your intermediary is unwilling or unable to enroll your Common Shares in the Plan, you may become a registered shareowner by instructing your intermediary to send you a share certificate representing your Common Shares and you may enroll in the Plan by following the procedure for registered shareowners.

The signature of the shareowner on an Enrollment Form must correspond exactly to the name(s) of the registered holder(s). If a shareowner has Common Shares registered in different names on different share certificates, it is necessary for such shareowner to complete, sign and submit as many separate Enrollment Forms as there are different registrations, or else request that the certificates be consolidated.

Once enrolled, participation in the Plan continues until terminated by the Participant, by us or by death of the Participant, or until the Plan is terminated by us.

Purchases

Where will the Plan Shares be purchased for Participants under the Plan?

The Plan Shares purchased by the Plan Agent will either be existing shares purchased through a stock broker on the open market through the NYSE or new shares purchased directly from us. Under the Plan, we determine, by written notice to the Plan Agent, which of these two sources the Plan Agent will use. The Plan Agent will advise Participants of the method of purchase of Plan Shares by notification with the quarterly statements of account.

Table of Contents

How will Plan Shares be purchased for Participants?

Participation in the Plan becomes effective on the first Common Share Dividend Record Date (as such term is defined in the Plan) after the Plan Agent receives the completed shareowner participation form(s). A Participant's cash dividends (less any applicable withholding taxes) are invested in Common Shares on each subsequent Dividend Payment Date (as such term is defined in the Plan).

What will be the price of Plan Shares purchased under the Plan?

If Common Shares are issued from treasury upon the reinvestment of cash dividends under the Plan, the price at which such Common Shares are purchased by Participants will be the average of the high and low prices of our Common Shares actually traded on the NYSE on the five trading days immediately preceding the dividend payment date on which not less than 100 Common Shares were traded (the "Average Market Price") less a discount, if any, of up to 5%, at our election.

We have determined not to set an initial discount to the Average Market Price for purchases upon the reinvestment of cash dividends under the Plan. We may, subject to the terms of the Plan, set, alter or eliminate any discount at any time.

If Common Shares are purchased on the open market, the price at which such Common Shares are purchased by Participants will be the average of the actual price paid (excluding brokerage commissions, fees and transaction costs) per Common Share by the Plan Agent.

Certificates

Will certificates be issued for Plan Shares?

No. Certificates for Plan Shares purchased under the Plan will not be issued to Participants. The number of shares held for an account under the Plan will be shown on the Participant's quarterly statement of account. This convenience protects against loss, theft or destruction of share certificates. Dividends paid on Plan Shares held for a Participant will be reinvested under the Plan unless such shares are withdrawn.

Statements to Participants

What kind of statements will be sent to Participants in the Plan?

A quarterly statement of account will be mailed to each Participant approximately three weeks after the Dividend Payment Date. The statement of account is a Participant's continuing record of purchases made under the Plan and should be retained for tax purposes. In addition, each Participant will receive such tax information required to be provided by law annually for reporting dividends paid on their Plan Shares.

Withdrawal or Sale of Shares

Can a Participant withdraw or sell shares held in the Plan?

A Participant who is not terminating participation in the Plan may, by completing the withdrawal portion of the voucher located on the reverse of a quarterly statement of account and sending it to the Plan Agent, withdraw whole Plan Shares from the Plan. Upon receipt of a withdrawal request, the Plan Agent will withdraw the specified number of whole shares from the Participant's account and deliver a share certificate or a Direct Registration System Advice ("DRS Advice") representing such shares in the Participant's name.

Participants may request that the Plan Agent sell any number of Plan Shares on their behalf. Upon receipt of such a request, the Plan Agent will, as soon as practicable, arrange for the sale of such Plan Shares through a registered broker-dealer selected by the Plan Agent from time to time. The proceeds of such sale, less brokerage commissions, administrative fees and applicable taxes, if any, will be paid to the Participant by the Plan Agent. A Participant may obtain a duplicate copy of their quarterly statement of account containing the required voucher from the Plan Agent at any time.

Table of Contents

Termination of Participation in the Plan

How does a Participant terminate participation in the Plan?

Participants may terminate their participation in the Plan by completing the termination portion of the voucher on the reverse of their quarterly statement of account and sending it to the Plan Agent at any time. Where notice of termination is received at least three business days prior to a Dividend Record Date, the termination will be effective for the applicable record date. Any requests received less than three business days prior to a Dividend Record Date will become effective after the next following Dividend Payment Date. Otherwise, termination will be effective upon receipt of the notice by the Plan Agent.

The Plan Agent will settle a terminating Participant's account by issuing a share certificate or DRS Advice for the number of whole Plan Shares held in such Participant's account and making a cash payment to such Participant for any fraction of a Plan Share remaining. The amount of the payment for any such fraction will be determined by reference to the Average Market Price determined for the preceding Dividend Payment Date.

CERTAIN CANADIAN FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSIDERATIONS

The following is a general summary of certain of the Canadian federal income tax considerations under the Income Tax Act (Canada) (the "Act") generally applicable to a Participant who acquires Common Shares pursuant to the Plan and who, at all relevant times, for purposes of the Act, (i) deals at arm's length with and is not affiliated with the Company and (ii) holds all Common Shares, and will hold any Common Shares issued pursuant to the Plan, as capital property (a "Specified Participant"). This summary is based upon the Act and the administrative policy of the Canada Revenue Agency (the "CRA") in effect on May 18, 2015. This summary is of a general nature only. Participants should consult and rely on their own tax advisors with respect to the tax consequences of participating in the Plan.

Resident Participants

This portion of the summary is generally applicable only to a Specified Participant who, for purposes of the Act and at all relevant times, is resident or deemed to be resident in Canada (a "Resident Participant"). This summary does not apply to a Resident Participant: (i) that is a "financial institution" for the purposes of the "mark-to-market" rules; (ii) that is a "specified financial institution"; (iii) an interest in which is a "tax shelter investment"; or (iv) that has elected to determine its Canadian tax results in accordance with the "functional currency" rules, as each of those terms is defined in the Act.

For purposes of the Act, Resident Participants will be considered to have received a taxable dividend on each Dividend Payment Date equal to the full amount of the cash dividend paid on that date. Resident Participants must include in taxable income the taxable amount of dividends and will be subject to tax under the Act in the same manner as they would have been had they received the dividends directly.

Based on the CRA's administrative policy, the purchase by a Resident Participant of Common Shares from the reinvestment of cash dividends at a discount that is no greater than 5% should not result in a taxable benefit under the Act to such Resident Participant.

The amount paid to acquire Common Shares will be added to the Resident Participant's cost of such Common Shares. For purposes of determining the Resident Participant's gain or loss from the disposition or deemed disposition of Common Shares, the cost of such Common Shares will be averaged with the adjusted cost base of all of the Common Shares the Resident Participant holds as capital property.

When a Resident Participant's participation in the Plan is terminated or when the Plan is terminated, the Resident Participant may be deemed to have received a dividend to the extent that any cash payment received by the Resident Participant in respect of any fractional Common Share remaining in the Resident Participant's account exceeds the paid-up capital (within the meaning of the Act) in respect of such fractional Common Share and a capital gain (or loss) may also be realized in certain circumstances. A Resident Participant should not realize any taxable income, gain or loss under the Act when the Resident Participant receives share certificates for whole Common Shares previously credited to the Resident Participant's account under the Plan, either upon the Resident Participant's request, upon termination of participation in the Plan or upon termination of the Plan.

Table of Contents

Non-Resident Participants

This portion of the summary is applicable only to a Specified Participant who, for purposes of the Act and at all relevant times, (i) is neither resident nor deemed to be resident in Canada, (ii) does not use or hold and is not deemed to use or hold Common Shares in the course of carrying on a business in Canada and (iii) whose Common Shares are not “designated insurance property” or “taxable Canadian property”, as each of those terms is defined in the Act (a “Non-Resident Participant”).

For purposes of the Act, Non-Resident Participants will be considered to have received a taxable dividend on each Dividend Payment Date equal to the full amount of the cash dividend paid on that date. Dividends paid to a Non-Resident Participant will generally be subject to Canadian withholding tax at a rate of 25% unless the Non-Resident Participant is entitled to the benefits of an income tax treaty between Canada and the Non-Resident Participant’s country of residence. If a Non-Resident Participant is entitled to the benefits of such a treaty, the Canadian withholding tax rate will generally be reduced to 15%.

Based on the CRA’s administrative policy, the purchase by a Non-Resident Participant of Common Shares from the reinvestment of cash dividends at a discount that is no greater than 5% should not result in a taxable benefit under the Act to such Non-Resident Participant.

When a Non-Resident Participant’s participation in the Plan is terminated or when the Plan is terminated, the Non-Resident Participant may be deemed to have received a dividend to the extent that any cash payment received by the Non-Resident Participant in respect of any fractional Common Share remaining in the Non-Resident Participant’s account exceeds the paid-up capital (within the meaning of the Act) in respect of such fractional Common Share. A Non-Resident Participant should not realize any taxable income, gain or loss under the Act when the Non-Resident Participant receives share certificates for whole Common Shares previously credited to the Non-Resident Participant’s account under the Plan, either upon the Non-Resident Participant’s request, upon termination of participation in the Plan or upon termination of the Plan.

CERTAIN UNITED STATES FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSIDERATIONS

This portion of the summary is applicable only to a Participant who, for purposes of the United States Internal Revenue Code (“Code”), is a resident of the United States (“U.S. Resident”). For purposes of the Code, U.S. Residents will be considered to have received a taxable dividend that is reportable as income on each Dividend Payment Date equal to the amount of the cash dividend. Form 1099-DIV will identify whether such dividends are taxable as ordinary or capital gains income. The amount of the fair market value of newly purchased Common Shares over the value of the cash dividend on the Dividend Payment Date is also reportable as income by the U.S. Resident. The basis of additional Common Shares purchased with cash dividends is equal to the amount paid for the additional Common Shares (which is the amount of the cash dividend) plus any difference in fair market value of the additional Common Shares over the purchase price on the Dividend Payment Date. Upon the sale of the additional Common Shares, any gain or loss will be taxable as capital gain to the shareowner.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

Except to the extent the Plan Agent purchases Common Shares in the open market, the Common Shares acquired under the Plan will be sold directly by us through the Plan. We may sell our Common Shares to owners of shares (including brokers or dealers) who, in connection with any resales of such shares, may be deemed to be underwriters. These shares may be resold in market transactions (including coverage of short positions) on any national security exchange or automated quotation system on which our Common Shares trade or are quoted. Our Common Shares are listed on the NYSE under the trading symbol “COT” and on the TSX under the trading symbol “BCB.” The difference between the price owners who may be deemed to be underwriters pay us for our Common Shares acquired under the Plan and the price at which such shares are resold, may be deemed to constitute underwriting commissions received by these owners in connection with such transactions.

Subject to the availability of Common Shares registered for issuance under the Plan, there is no total maximum number of shares that can be issued to any particular shareowner pursuant to the reinvestment of dividends. Upon your withdrawal from the Plan by the sale of Common Shares held under the Plan, you will receive the proceeds of such sale, less any applicable fees. All administrative costs of the Plan, including any brokerage commissions, fees or other expenses of the Plan Agent incurred for the purchase of Common Shares for Participants, are borne by us.

Our Common Shares may not be available under the Plan in all states or jurisdictions. This prospectus does not constitute an offer to sell, or a solicitation of an offer to buy, any Common Shares or other securities in any state or any other jurisdiction to any person to whom it is unlawful to make such offer in such jurisdiction.

Item 15. Indemnification of Directors and Officers

Under the Canada Business Corporations Act (“CBCA”), a corporation may indemnify certain persons associated with the corporation or, at the request of the corporation, another entity, against all costs, charges, and expenses (including an amount paid to settle an action or satisfy a judgment) reasonably incurred by him or her in respect of any civil, criminal, administrative, investigative, or other proceeding in which he or she is involved because of that association with the corporation or other entity. Indemnifiable persons are current and former directors or officers, other individuals who act or acted at the corporation’s request as a director or officer, or an individual acting in a similar capacity of another entity.

The law permits indemnification only if the indemnifiable person acted honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the corporation or, as the case may be, to the best interests of the other entity for which the individual acted as a director or officer in a similar capacity at the corporation’s request and, in the case of a criminal or administrative action or proceeding that is enforced by a monetary penalty, he or she had reasonable grounds for believing his or her conduct was lawful and he or she was not judged by a court or other competent authority to have committed any fault or omitted to do anything he or she ought to have done. With the approval of the court, a corporation may also indemnify an indemnifiable person in respect of an action by or on behalf of the corporation to which the indemnifiable person is made a party because of his or her association with the corporation.

Sections 7.02 and 7.04 of our by-laws provide that, without in any manner derogating from or limiting the mandatory provisions of the CBCA but subject to the conditions contained in the by-laws, we shall indemnify any of our directors or officers, former directors or officers, and each individual who acts or acted at our request as a director or officer, or each individual acting in a similar capacity at another entity, against all costs, charges, and expenses, including an amount paid to settle an action or satisfy a judgment, reasonably incurred by the individual in respect of any civil, criminal, administrative, investigative, or other proceeding in which the individual is involved because of that association with us or another entity to the extent that the individual seeking the indemnity:

- acted honestly and in good faith with a view to our best interests or the best interest of the other entity for which the individual acted as a director or officer or in a similar capacity at our request, as the case may be; and
- in the case of a criminal or administrative action or proceeding that is enforced by a monetary penalty, the individual had reasonable grounds for believing that his or her conduct was lawful.

Both the CBCA and our by-laws expressly provide for us to advance monies to a director, officer, or other individual for the costs, charges, and expenses of a proceeding referenced above. The individual is required to repay the moneys if he or she does not fulfill the aforementioned conditions. Section 7.05 of our by-laws states that, subject to the limitations contained in the CBCA, we may purchase and maintain insurance for the benefit of our directors and officers as such, as the board may from time to time determine.

Table of Contents

In addition to the provisions found in our by-laws, we have entered into indemnification agreements with our directors and executive officers. Pursuant to the indemnification agreements, we are required to indemnify and save harmless the indemnitee subject to and to the fullest extent permitted by law from and against any and all liability, damages, costs (including legal fees and disbursements), charges and expenses arising out of or relating to any act or omission by the indemnitee in connection with the execution of his or her duties as a director, officer, employee, trustee, agent and/or fiduciary of the Company or another entity at the request of the Company; provided that the indemnitee acted honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interest of the Company or other entity and, in the case of a criminal or administrative action or proceeding that is enforced by a monetary penalty, the indemnitee had reasonable grounds for believing that his or her conduct was lawful. Such indemnification shall continue as to such indemnitee even if he or she has ceased to be a director or officer of the Company. We are also required to advance the indemnitee all legal fees and other costs, expenses and obligations paid or incurred by the indemnitee in connection with investigating, defending, being a witness in or participating in, or preparing to be a witness or participate in, any civil, criminal or administrative action, suit, proceeding, claim or demand within 30 days after our receipt of a written request for such advance; provided that such advance must be forthwith repaid to the Company if it shall ultimately be determined that the indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified against such costs and expenses.

Insofar as the foregoing provisions permit indemnification of directors, officers or persons controlling us for liability arising under the Securities Act, we have been informed that, in the opinion of the SEC, this indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is therefore unenforceable.

Item 16. Exhibits

(a) Exhibits

Reference is made to the Exhibit Index filed as a part of this registration statement.

Item 17. Undertakings

The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than 20 percent change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the "Calculation of Registration Fee" table in the effective registration statement;

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement;

Provided, however, that paragraphs (1)(i), (1)(ii) and (1)(iii) do not apply if the registration statement is on Form S-3 and the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in reports filed with or furnished to the Commission by the Registrant pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that are incorporated by reference in the registration statement, or is contained in a form prospectus filed pursuant to Rule 424(b) that is part of the registration statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

Table of Contents

(4) That, for the purpose of determining liability of the Registrant under the Securities Act of 1933 to any purchaser in the initial distribution of the securities, the undersigned Registrant undertakes that in a primary offering of securities of the undersigned Registrant pursuant to this registration statement, regardless of the underwriting method used to sell the securities to the purchaser, if the securities are offered or sold to such purchaser by means of any of the following communications, the undersigned Registrant will be a seller to the purchaser and will be considered to offer or sell such securities to such purchaser:

(i) Any preliminary prospectus or prospectus of the undersigned Registrant relating to the offering required to be filed pursuant to Rule 424;

(ii) Any free writing prospectus relating to the offering prepared by or on behalf of the undersigned Registrant or used or referred to by the undersigned Registrant;

(iii) The portion of any other free writing prospectus relating to the offering containing material information about the undersigned Registrant or its securities provided by or on behalf of the undersigned Registrant; and

(iv) Any other communication that is an offer in the offering made by the undersigned Registrant to the purchaser.

(5) That, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the Registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the Registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
